

BANKRUPTCY

Professor George H. Singer
3.0 Credits

2012 (Spring)
Tuesday and Thursday
8:00 a.m. – 9:15 a.m.

COURSE SYLLABUS

Required Materials

- (1) William D. Warren & Daniel J. Bussel, Bankruptcy (Foundation Press, 8th ed. 2009);

William D. Warren and Daniel J. Bussel, Bankruptcy, 2011 Supplement to 8th edition (Foundation Press, July 27, 2011);

- (2) United States Bankruptcy Code, Title 11 United States Code;
- (3) Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure; and
- (4) Supplemental materials to be made available on a periodic basis.

Supplementary Reading

It is not necessary to do any reading beyond that assigned. In fact, thoughtful consideration of the assigned materials is preferable to seeking other material. For those who want to go beyond the assigned materials, there is no single text or hornbook to recommend but West's Bankruptcy Treatise/Hornbook, authored by Epstein, Nickles and White, may be helpful. A more detailed multi-volumed treatise, entitled Collier on Bankruptcy, is generally regarded as the preeminent source of secondary authority.

The subject matter for this class is based upon the statutory scheme set forth in Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") and related Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Rules"). It will therefore be extremely important for you to carefully review the specific statutes and Rules covered in class and referenced in the reading in conjunction with your work. You should note that the Bankruptcy Code was amended on April 20, 2005 (with an effective date for most provisions of October 20, 2005) by the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005. As such, you should ensure that you have a current version of the Bankruptcy Code and Rules and do not rely upon any former versions. The textbook provides some detail, particularly in the consumer materials, of the former law. You should understand that this history (i.e. how the law was) can prove to be useful in understanding current statutory provisions.

Office Hours and Contact Information

I usually arrive at class at least a half an hour before class (i.e. 7:30 a.m., Tuesday & Thursday) and have set this time as my official office hours. I would encourage you to come at this time if you have questions or would like additional assistance. In addition, I am available by telephone and e-mail and can arrange to make myself available at other times, so feel free to contact me if you would like to discuss any issues.

You can reach me at:

George H. Singer
Lindquist & Vennum, PLLP
4200 IDS Center, 80 South Eighth Street
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402
Work Telephone: 612/371-2493 (Direct)
Facsimile: 612/371-3207
E-mail:gsinger@lindquist.com

Preparation, Attendance and Participation

Each of you is expected to be prepared for discussion of the materials assigned for each day. While there may be materials assigned to a specific student on a given day, each of you is expected to be prepared to contribute. If you are called upon and are not well-prepared, this will result in a waste of your classmates' time as well as your own.

As the Academic Rules and Attendance Policy provide, regular and punctual class attendance and preparation are required. Your absence, particularly in light of this class size, will be noticed and excessive absences will be addressed. You should notify me in advance, to the extent possible, if you anticipate being absent from class. If you anticipate being absent on any day that you are responsible for any portion of the assignment or class discussion, it will be your responsibility to find another student to cover your assigned materials.

Potential sanctions for failure to meet these requirements are set forth in the Student Handbook and below under "Grades." At my discretion, lateness to class may be deemed an absence.

Computer Policy

The use of laptop computers during class time for the purpose of taking notes (i.e. word processing) is permitted. A note of caution, however, it is important for you to participate in classroom discussion and give adequate thought to the material covered in class. Experience has shown that those who utilize their computers to copy down everything that is said in class and fail to spend sufficient time to thinking about the material discussed and responding in class may not be as well prepared as others. Also, it is never appropriate to use your laptops during class to send e-mails, surf the internet or for any other purpose unrelated to the class. If you have any questions about the use of your laptop, do not hesitate to contact me to address them.

Grades

This course is a three (3.0) credit course with one examination. The examination will be given at the end of the course and you will be graded upon the examination. All materials covered in the textbook, related Bankruptcy Code and Rules sections, or addressed in class are fair game for the examination.

The only qualifications to the foregoing are as follows: The right is reserved pursuant to the Academic Rules (Rule 1-107 C.5(a)), to instruct the Registrar's Office to enter a grade as much as one grade increment lower (e.g., from a B- to a C+) than your exam grade for any consistent apparent lack of preparation by a student without legitimate excuse. ("Legitimate excuse" entails such matters as illness, childbirth, or family emergencies. It does not include such matters as working on a paper or some other project for another course). Similarly, the right is reserved, to the extent permitted pursuant to the Academic Rules, to instruct the Registrar's Office to enter a grade as much as one increment higher (e.g., from a B to a B+) than your exam grade to recognize extraordinary classroom participation that demonstrates a knowledge of the subject matter and materials beyond that which is demonstrated in your examination.

Assignments*

I will let you know at the end of each class session the actual assignment for the next class. You can generally expect that we will cover between 25 to 30 pages for each assignment and I attempt to leave off at various defined sections or natural breaks in the textbook that are somewhat obvious.

Although on occasion specific Rules or statutory provisions will be stated as part of the next assignment, I will usually only assign page numbers of the textbook. You should assume that Bankruptcy Code, Rules, statutes, and constitutional provisions mentioned in the assigned pages are also part of the assignment, and you should therefore study them as well as the assigned pages. (You need not read the Advisory Committee Notes to the Bankruptcy Code Rules unless they are specifically assigned.)

Many of the assignments in this course will include a reading of one or more Bankruptcy Code Sections or Rules. However, you should be aware of the fact that we will not be covering all of the Bankruptcy Code Sections or Rules. Rather, we will focus on the more major issues involved in bankruptcy and the Bankruptcy Code Sections and Rules that are pertinent to these issues. Even though some of the Bankruptcy Code sections and Rules will not be specifically assigned, however, you should at some point during the year (preferably early on) skim through the entire Bankruptcy Code and all of the Rules.

**Importantly, you will note that there is a 2011 Supplement that is intended to augment the reading assignments. You are expected to read, as part of each assignment, the applicable portions of the 2011 Supplement and should note that the reading list does not reference the pages of the 2011 Supplement (you are expected to check and review for applicability to each assignment).*

ASSIGNMENTS
(Subject to Modification)

Tuesday, January 17, 2012

Introduction to Bankruptcy
Review of Article 9 Issues

Text pp. 1-28
(Review Form of Petition and Schedules Posted)

Thursday, January 19, 2012

The Bankruptcy Estate

Text pp. 29-56

Tuesday, January 24, 2012

The Bankruptcy Estate, Claims

Text pp. 56-93

Thursday, January 26, 2012

Claims

Text pp. 93-127

Tuesday, January 31, 2012

Discharge

Text pp. 129-156(6)

Thursday, February 2, 2012

Discharge; Stays and Injunctions

Text pp. 156(7)-185(4)

Tuesday, February 7, 2012

Stays and Injunction

Text pp. 185(C)-228

Thursday, February 9, 2012

Executory Contracts and Leases

Text pp. 229-266

Tuesday, February 14, 2012

Executory Contracts and Leases

Text pp. 267(6)-305

Thursday, February 16, 2012

Executory Contracts and Leases; Avoiding Powers

Text pp. 306-346

Tuesday, February 21, 2012

The Avoiding Powers of the Trustee

Text pp. 346(6)-368

Thursday, February 23, 2012

The Avoiding Powers of the Trustee

Text pp. 368(C)-396

Tuesday, February 28, 2012

The Avoiding Powers of the Trustee

Text pp. 396-430

In re American Cartage, Inc., 2011 WL 3831891 (1st Cir. 2011)

Thursday, March 1, 2012

Equitable Subordination and Substantive Consolidation

Text pp. 431-464

Tuesday, March 6, 2012

NO CLASS – SPRING BREAK

Thursday, March 8, 2012

NO CLASS – SPRING BREAK

Tuesday, March 13, 2012

The Consumer Debtor in Chapters 7 and 13

Text pp. 465-505

Schwab v. Reilly, 130 S.Ct. 2652 (2010)

Thursday, March 15, 2012

The Consumer Debtor in Chapters 7 and 13

Text pp. 505(5)-574

Tuesday, March 20, 2012

Reorganizing in Chapter 11

Text pp. 575-615

Thursday, March 22, 2012

Reorganizing in Chapter 11

Text pp. 615(b)-647

Tuesday, March 27, 2012

Reorganizing in Chapter 11

Text pp. 648-682

Thursday, March 29, 2012

GUEST LECTURER(S) – 363 SALES

Tuesday, April 3, 2012

Reorganizing in Chapter 11; Confirming a Chapter 11 Plan

Text pp. 682(b)-719

Thursday, April 5, 2012

Confirming a Chapter 11 Plan

Text pp. 719(B)-757

Tuesday, April 10, 2012

Confirming a Chapter 11 Plan

Skip Text pp. 757(2)-767

Text pp. 767(D)-810

Thursday, April 12, 2012

Confirming a Chapter 11 Plan; Bankruptcy Court Jurisdiction

Text pp. 810(E)-860

Tuesday, April 17, 2012

Bankruptcy Court Jurisdiction

Text pp. 860(B)-899

Thursday, April 19, 2012

READING TO BE ASSIGNED

Tuesday, April 24, 2012

NO CLASS – FIRST MEETING OF CREDITORS

Thursday, April 26, 2012

REVIEW

Tuesday, May 1, 2012

REVIEW

Thursday, May 3, 2012

Makeup/Reading Day

May 4 – May 17, 2012

Final Exams