

Business Law Certificate Program

ADDITIONAL ELECTIVES

The following classes listed by term that qualify as Additional Electives for the certificate. Up to 6 credits may count toward the required 12 credits of Elective Courses, but students interested in practicing business law are strongly encouraged to take additional business-related electives in addition to the minimum requirements for the Certificate. Please note that any course taken from this list will count toward your cumulative 3.0 GPA requirement.

Spring 2014 – Hamline University School of Law Courses

- Administrative Law (3 credits)
- Admiralty (3 credits)
- Antitrust (3 credits)
- Arbitration (2 credits)
- Business Planning (3 credits)
- Commercial Law: Payment Systems (3 credits)
- Commercial Law: Sales and Leases of Goods (3 credits)
- Commercial Real Estate Transactions (2 credits)
- Employment Discrimination (3 credits)
- Estate Planning and Tax (3 credits)
- Food and Drug Law (3 credits)
- Health Law Organization & Finance (3 credits)
- Land Use Planning (3 credits)
- Seminar or Selected Topic (variable) →
- Skills Lab: Commercial Law: Secured Transactions (1 credit)
- State and Local Tax/Public Financing (2 credits)
- Trade Secret Law (2 credits)
- Trademark Law and Unfair Competition (3 credits)
- Wills & Trusts (3 credits) [MN Bar Course]

Each term, qualifying Seminar and Selected Topic courses will be published and made available on the Forms & Resources web page:
<http://law.hamline.edu/businesslaw/resources.html>