

SYLLABUS

WRONGFUL CONVICTIONS

Fall: 2013

Tuesday 410p-620p

Adjunct Professor Julie Jonas
Managing Attorney
Innocence Project of Minnesota
1536 Hewitt Avenue
St. Paul, MN 55104
651-523-2845
jjonas@ipmn.org

DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

Wrongful Convictions is run in conjunction with the Innocence Project of Minnesota. Its purpose is to educate students about the causes of wrongful convictions as well as their remedies. It will also provide students with an opportunity to practice some litigation techniques in the safety of a classroom setting. The reading materials cover such topics as unreliable eyewitness identifications, false confessions, snitch testimony, ineffective assistance of counsel and racial bias in the court system. Students are expected to perform in-class exercises such as cross-examining eyewitnesses regarding identification issues, challenging confessions, cross-examining informants and conducting jury voir dire for racial bias. Finally, students will be required to evaluate an inmate application for assistance submitted to the Innocence Project of Minnesota as part of their grade.

TEXT: Required:

1. Scheck, Dwyer, Neufeld, Actual Innocence: When Justice Goes Wrong and How To Make It Right (abbreviated AI in the syllabus);
2. Brooks, Wrongful Convictions (abbreviated WC in the syllabus);
3. Regularly posted readings on TWEN.

GRADES: Final assignment: From case materials* provided, students will prepare a case summary according to program format. Final written project is due at the beginning of the last day of class.

Assignment will be “take home”; however, you are expected to work alone.

Class participation: Attention to reading assignments shown through insightful comments during class and active participation in exercises will affect your grade. Excellent class participation, shown through thoughtful answers and commentary that shows an understanding of the assigned materials, will increase your grade one level (e.g. A- becomes an A). Poor class participation will decrease your grade one level (e.g. B- becomes a C+).

Late or missing assignments will receive no credit absent extraordinary circumstances.

*Please note you must be willing to sign and abide by the terms of a confidentiality agreement related to the case materials you will be working on. You will be required to return those materials. Students unwilling or unable to abide by those terms and conditions should notify the instructor immediately.

Attendance will be taken daily. In addition to the effect it could have on the participation portion of your grade, excessive absences could result in a lower grade or non-passing grade. It is expected that students will attend class regularly and be prepared to participate in class discussion and exercises. Excessive absence is defined as missing 2 or more classes.

COMPUTER USE POLICY: Because the value of this class is highly dependent upon intensive interaction among the participants, computer use should be limited to taking notes or looking up information related to the class discussion. However, any other use of the computer or the internet is prohibited during class time because it is distracting for the rest of the class.

PLEASE BE SURE TO CHECK TWEN FOR SUPPLEMENTAL READING

BEWARE – THE ATTACHED SCHEDULE IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE.
I WILL KEEP YOU UPDATED IN CLASS****

August 27, 2013:	No Class – As a make-up for this class, you should watch the movie Murder on a Sunday Morning before class on October 1st . We will discuss it that day. I will have a copy on reserve at the library. It is also available through Netflix and Amazon.
September 3, 2013:	ADVANCE ASSIGNMENT - Introduction to Wrongful Conviction: overview and innocence project research. Chapter 1 of AI and Appendix 2 and Chapter 1 of WC and TWEN.
September 10, 2013:	Eyewitness Identification: Memory, process and factors that can affect reliability. Assignment: Ch. 3 of AI, Ch. 5 of WC, and TWEN.
September 17, 2013:	False Confessions: How can a police interrogation result in a false confession? Assignment: Ch. 4 of AI, Ch.6 of WC, and TWEN
September 24, 2013:	Ineffective Assistance of Counsel: Failure of states to provide for capable counsel for the indigent and its effect - wrongful convictions. Assignment: Ch. 9 of AI, Ch. 3 of WC, and TWEN.

October 1, 2013: (two topics covered this class – keep reading)	Government Misconduct and Wrongful Convictions: How abuse of prosecutorial powers can result in wrongful convictions. Assignment: Ch. 8 of AI, Ch. 4 of WC, and TWEN.
October 1, 2013:	Informants and Cooperators: Abuse of jailhouse informants and wrongful convictions; Remedies. Assignment: Ch. 6 and TWEN.
October 8, 2013:	Forensic Science and Wrongful Convictions: Logic of forensic science; flaws in forensic sciences; and lack of data establishing reliability of tests. Assignment: Ch. 5, 7 of AI, Ch. 7 of WC and TWEN
October 15, 2013:	DNA Testing and Innocence: How DNA evidence, proof positive that the defendant is "actually innocent," works. Assignment: Ch. 2 of AI, Ch. 8 of WC (except do not read CA penal code sections) and TWEN.
October 22, 2013:	Habeas Corpus and Post-Conviction Remedies: Can you still be in prison if you can show that you are "actually innocent?" Assignment: Ch. 2 WC, and TWEN. Sample assignment distributed in class.
October 29, 2013:	Habeas Continued: Discuss sample assignment and review habeas. Discussion of Media and Wrongful Convictions.
November 5, 2013:	Innocence and Race: Assignment: Ch. 10 AI, and TWEN. Final Assignment distributed in class.
November 12, 2013:	Innocence and Race Assignment: TWEN
November 19, 2013:	Starting Over: Ch. 12, 13, 14, Appendix 1 of AI, Ch. 10 of WC (except do not read CA penal code section), and TWEN. Final Assignment Due.