This bibliography is a work in progress. It was last updated on August 1, 2005 by Howard J. Vogel, Professor of Law, Hamline University School of Law. Please email your suggestions for additions to hvogel@hamline.edu This bibliography was originally prepared by Penelope Harley and Howard Vogel for the Biennial 2003 Symposium On Advanced Issues in Dispute Resolution sponsored by the Dispute Resolution Institute of Hamline University School of Law entitled MOVING TO THE NEXT LEVEL: Intentional Conversations About Restorative Justice, Mediation, and the Practice of Law, held at Hamline University, St. Paul, Minnesota, USA, November 1 and 2, 2003. Rather than attempting to compile a comprehensive catalogue of resources, this bibliography was intentionally tied to the anticipated themes of the symposium, in the hope that it would be helpful to all those participating in the symposium. An annotated abridged copy of the transcript of the proceedings of the Symposium is published: James Coben & Penelope Harley, Intentional Conversations About Restorative Justice, Mediation and the Practice of Law, 25 HAMLINE J. L & PUBLIC POL’Y 235 (2004).
