

Fall 2009 Courses Eligible for CAPS Credit

To help you prepare for fall registration, below please find a list of Fall courses eligible for credit toward the Certificate in Advocacy and Problem-Solving:

ELIGIBLE FOR "FOUNDATION" CREDIT

Evidence
Negotiation
Theories of Conflict

ELIGIBLE FOR "PROCESS OVERVIEW" CREDIT

Arbitration (satisfies "Arbitration" requirement)
Litigation Practice (satisfies "Litigation" requirement, plus one elective credit)

ELIGIBLE FOR "ADVOCACY PRACTICE" CREDIT

Clinic: Child Advocacy
Clinic: Employment Discrimination Mediation Representation
Clinic: Health Law
Clinic: Immigration
Clinic: Innocence
Clinic: Mediation
Clinic: Small Business/Non-Profit
Clinic: State Public Defender
Clinic: Student Director
Clinic: Trial Practice
Competition: ABA Negotiation
Competition: Admiralty Law
Competition: Client Counseling
Competition: F. Douglass
Competition: Health Law
Competition: InterAmerican Human Rights
Competition: International Foreign Direct Investment Moot Court
Competition: Jessup Moot Court
Competition: McGee Civil Rights
Competition: Mediation
Competition: Mock Trial
Competition: NNALSA Moot Court
Competition: National Moot Court
Competition: Rich Intellectual Property
Competition: Tax Challenge
Competition: Tax Moot Court
Competition: Thomas Tang
Competition: Vis International Arbitration
Extended Practicum
Lawyering Skills

Legal Drafting: Wills & Trusts
Practicum: General
Practicum: Health Law
Practicum: Private Attorney
Practicum: Public Interest

ELIGIBLE FOR "ELECTIVE" CREDIT

Conflict of Laws
Remedies
Selected Topic: NAFTA
Seminar: Ethics
Seminar: Race and the Law