COURSE SYLLABUS

Course: Accounting for Lawyers

Professor: Mark L. Geier
(H) 651.905.0907

Meeting Dates: Thursday Evenings Beginning August 20, 2009

If I need to cancel a class, make-up classes will be held on days that I announce. If make-up classes are needed, it is likely that they will be held on Thursday evenings at the Meeting Times indicated below.

Meeting Times: 6:00 p.m. – 8:40 p.m.

Meeting Place: Room 103

Textbook: Charles H. Meyer, Accounting and Finance for Lawyers (3rd Edition 2006)(Thomson West).

Supplement: Mark L. Geier, Accounting for Lawyers Fall 2009.

Course Objective: To familiarize law students with basic accounting concepts so that they better understand financial statements when they are practicing law.

Reading Assignments: For Class 1, read chapters 1 through 3 in the textbook, and skim the Supplement. Reading assignments for future classes will be announced in class.

Grades: Grading will be based on a Final Exam that, at this point, I expect will be a take-home exam. Grades will be assigned on a “pass/fail” basis. If the Final Exam is a take-home exam, you will need to pick up the exam IN PERSON in the Law School Registrar’s Office. All answers to the Final Exam must be legibly written in a blue book. IF THEY ARE NOT, YOU WILL RECEIVE AN “F” FOR THE COURSE.

Attendance: The ABA requires that all law students regularly attend classes. Since this course meets only once a week and for only approximately one-fourth of the semester, missing one (1) class is the same as missing three (3) or four (4) weeks of classes. As a result, if you miss a class and/or expect to miss a class, please see me to determine whether the absence is or will be excused. If you do miss a class, YOU are responsible to obtain from your classmates the material that we had covered in your absence.

Computer Use: Students may use computers during class; provided, however, that such use is limited to work pertinent to this class.
