GRADING

Grades for degree-seeking students will be based on the following elements with the designated weights:

1. Class participation: 20% (includes classroom involvement, group presentation and performance in simulations)
2. Take-home Exam: 80%. The final exam will be based on the syllabus readings and various simulations conducted in class. The exam can be downloaded from the TWEN website at any time until 12pm on January 14, 2010, and must be submitted/uploaded within eight hours of the time when it was downloaded to the TWEN Assignment Drop-Box. Please keep a copy of your exam. Grading is anonymous and consequently students should only include their exam number on their exam (instructions provided below for finding your final exam number.) The final exam will designate maximum word limits for answers to respective questions.

Attendance at ALL class sessions is required.

Written assignment: Only degree-seeking students, including Certificate students, must complete the final paper.

You will need to know your 5 digit final exam number before you can upload the document. If you do not know your final exam number:

- Go to Pipeline (http://www.hamline.edu/homepage_items/home/pipeline.html)
- Login to Secure Area
- Choose Student Services
- Click on Registration
- Click on Student Detail Schedule
- Select term January 2010
- Your final exam number is listed below total credit hours at the top of the page.
