

Spring 2009 Courses Eligible for CAPS Credit

To help you prepare for spring registration, below please find a list of Spring courses eligible for credit toward the Certificate in Advocacy and Problem-Solving:

ELIGIBLE FOR "FOUNDATION" CREDIT

Evidence

Negotiation

Conflict Theories (Hamline University School of Business)

ELIGIBLE FOR "PROCESS OVERVIEW" CREDIT

Arbitration (satisfies "Arbitration" requirement)

International Civil Litigation (satisfies "Litigation" requirement)

Litigation Practice (satisfies "Litigation" requirement, plus one elective credit)

Trial Advocacy (satisfies "Litigation" requirement)

ELIGIBLE FOR "ADVOCACY PRACTICE" CREDIT

Advanced Legal Research

Advanced Litigation Practice

Clinic: Child Advocacy

Clinic: Education Law

Clinic: Employment Discrimination Mediation Representation

Clinic: Health Law

Clinic: Immigration

Clinic: Innocence

Clinic: Mediation

Clinic: Small Business/Non-Profit

Clinic: State Public Defender

Clinic: Trial Practice

Competition: Admiralty Law

Competition: Client Counseling

Competition: Hispanic Moot Court

Competition: InterAmerican Human Rights

Competition: Jessup Moot Court

Competition: McGee Civil Rights

Competition: Mediation

Competition: Mock Trial

Competition: NNALSA Moot Court

Competition: Rich Intellectual Property

Competition: Tax Moot Court

Competition: Vis International Arbitration

Extended Practicum

Lawyering Skills

Legal Drafting: Employment

Legal Drafting: Wills

Oral Advocacy
Practicum: Corporate
Practicum: General
Practicum: Health Law
Practicum: Judicial Clerk
Practicum: Legislation and Lobbying
Practicum: Private Attorney

ELIGIBLE FOR "ELECTIVE" CREDIT

Collective Bargaining and Labor Arbitration
Conflict of Laws
Dispute Resolution Practices: ADR and Technology
Federal Courts
Jurisprudence
Remedies
Selected Topic: Prosecuting Child Abuse
Selected Topic: The Inter-American Human Rights System--Procedure and Practice
Seminar: Ethics
Seminar: Is ADR a Better Way?
Seminar: Persuasion