

Residence Hall Housing Available for Law Students

Manor Hall

This is a residence hall of upper-class students, and is located only a block from the law school. A first floor area is designated for Law, Graduate and undergraduate students seeking to pursue an advanced degree. The focus of the floor is academic.

Manor offers an extremely attractive space for this community. The first floor includes 2 wings of rooms separated by the main lobby. In addition there are study lounges and a formal lounge. Law students are placed in single rooms on a priority basis by deposit date. Double rooms are available after all single rooms have been filled. Programming opportunities are provided by the resident assistant..

Living in the residence hall provides you with:

- ◆ Community based housing
- ◆ Student staff and a Hall Director for support and assistance
- ◆ On-Campus Meal Plan options
- ◆ Included in the cost of housing are cable, Ethernet and Wireless Internet, local phone and voicemail service, and laundry service
